Town of Bremen
Conservation Commission Video Conference Call
Tuesday October 5,2026

BCC Members Present: Ann Nesslage, chair, Susan Davis, Hal D'Alby, Mary Berger, Naomi Martin, Walter Radloff
Associate member present:
Selectman Liaison Present:
Coastal Rivers Liaison: Brad Weigel
Guest:

September minutes approved

HOC trail some directional trail arrows replaced. Yellow trail arrows remain to be done. Dog waste was noticed even though waste bags are available.

Clam island. Is regularly maintained by Susie Davis. Two other members of BCC toured the trail and were very pleased with its status.

Hay property survey What is the deadline the town set for receiving completed surveys and publicizing the results?

Monitoring forms for BCC managed properties will be reviewed. S Davis will set up file in BCC file cabinet in the town office building

Maine Association of Conservation Commissions. The annual Mtg will be held Oct 24 in Brunswick. BCC will again be represented by Naomi and Mary.

Creek Rd landing A discussion about the parking area that was traditionally used for launching boats. BCC supports further exploration of use of land, ownership etc.

Hart Woods in Bremen. The trail work day very successful with over 25 volunteers working on developing the trail: 0.6 miles were cleared.

Planning Board (PB) discussion of what the PB is responsible for took place. . The PB"S aegis includes all development in the shoreland area. The need for further training of PB members was noted by Hal and Mary, It was also noted that the CEO works with the PB and his reports are available to the BOS. It was stressed the PB's role is important to insure proper us land.

The CEO, PB and ordinance committee are looking into reviewing ordinance changes to deal with recreation vehicles: how long they may be occupied, waste disposal and related issues. BCC supports this work. his.

Coastal Rivers is working on a detailed report of land they own or conserve in Bremen and its value to the town and the activities permitted on the land, such as hunting . This information would be useful for Comprehensive plan and informative to Bremen residents. There was discussion of how to communicate with residents effectively

Adjourned 5:52 pm

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Davis